NEWSLETTER DECEMBER 2016 Happy Christmas to Everyone!

Yoga begins on January 17th, Tuesdays 10.30-12 and Thursdays 6.30 – 8 Just drop in or call Angie on 01643 862 266

Tai Chi begins on January 24th, 4-5pm, if there is enough interest. Numbers have dropped recently and we URGENTLY need more people or, regretfully, the classes will have to finish. Just drop in or call Jane on 01984 634090

There will be a Christmas social with carols & music on 16th December at 7.30pm. Bring your own drinks and nibbles and come and join the party.

On January 19th the NHS will be at the hall giving Free Health Checks to anyone aged 40 - 74 without a pre-existing condition. This is your chance to get your free midlife MOT. Refreshments will be available. To book, either contact Kathy or book on line at health.smart@nhs.net

Thanks to Alan and George who have removed an internal wall to make the hall into one large room. Sliding doors will be installed in place of the wall so the hall can still be used as 2 rooms if required.

We have had many positive and complimentary comments from both stall holders and visitors about the Christmas Fayre. Everyone agreed it was a profitable and enjoyable event for all. The blanket made and raffled by the Wednesday group raised more than £200 for St Margaret's Hospice and the Hall Committee agreed to add the rest of the raffle money, making a total donation to the Hospice of £300.

The Vale Cinema has been successful in their grant application to the British Film Institute equipment fund. They are being supplied with a complete set of digital equipment which will make the setting up of film nights easier and help to improve the quality of the visual and sound experience for the audience. The first film of 2017 is Absolutely Fabulous on January 27th. We hope you will enter into the spirit of Ab Fab by bringing your own bottle of fizz (and maybe dressing the part?). Regretfully we can't provide the Bolly!

It's time for the big New Year clear out. Get ready for a Jumble Sale on 21st January.
