NEWSLETTER JULY 2017

We had another very successful Open Gardens. Our thanks to all who came to see the gardens and also to everyone who came to help; especially Pauline, Karen, Andrew and Sam who organised the event.

The fundraising event in aid of the Dorset & Somerset Air Ambulance organised by Mandy raised over £500.

We have not heard anything further about the Village of the Year competition so we are assuming that we have not been short-listed.

The drumming group held their first practise session and we have had no comments from anyone about being able to hear them so they will continue to use the hall on a regular basis.

The next film from the Vale Cinema on Friday, July 28th is 'Hidden Figures' based on the true story of three African-American women behind the launch into space of astronaut John Glenn. Please note there will be no film in August.

Our next event is the Big Cream Tea on Sunday, July 23rd, 1.30 – 4 pm.

Graham, our treasurer, has been successful in obtaining a grant from 'One Stop' to have the hall floor re-surfaced and we hope to begin the work shortly.

Finally, does anyone know anything about the car, a silver BMW registration X568 VDY, which has been parked without permission in the village hall car park for some time? If it belongs to you, or you know who owns it, please let us know.
